Duquesne Light Company Kicks Off Next Phase of Customer Energy Efficiency Programs
Watt Choices program encourages energy conservation

PITTSBURGH – Duquesne Light Company is a longtime supporter of helping customers learn about energy efficiency. As part of the PA Act 129, which encourages energy conservation across Pennsylvania, this month kicks off the third phase of Duquesne Light’s Watt Choices program focused on using energy in a smarter and more efficient manner.

“Through Phases I and II, we know the programs have been working and that customers are changing their behavior to help save on their electric bills,” said Dave Defide, Manager of Customers Programs. “We will continue to build on those programs and plan to add even more available options to customers later this summer.”

Duquesne Light Watt Choices offers programs to encourage energy conservation including:

- Rebates
- Compact Fluorescent Lights Instant Savings
- In-Home and Online energy audits
- Appliance Recycling
- Home Energy Reports
